

ABSTRACT

Workers Supply Service

Workers Supply Service is a web application which provides workers or experts to the customers in the field of electrical works, plumbing, maintenance works, drivers, carpenters, wood cutter, construction, mechanic, security, cook etc. The aim of this application is to understand the client's requirements and supply the man power to them. Only registered users can achieve these facilities. There is an option for getting different services like farming, carpentry, ambulance services with a single button click. A service for students is also provided through this web application that helps them to do part time works such that they can obtain money for there education purposes.

Module Description

1. Admin

Admin is the overall controller of this application. Admin can add, update and delete services. Admin can view registered workers, payment details and service requests.

2. Worker Registration

In this module the workers can register to the website. They can login to the system using their username and password. The workers can view the registered service request and apply for them.

3. Services

In this Module provide different services to users. Users can register their needs. This module provides the details of various services they offer. This module contains sub modules such as:

- Civil Contractors

If a user need construction or maintenance works including masonry or carpentry works they can approach the site.

- Farming

If a user needs farming service they can approach the site.

- Cleaning works

- Electrical Works
- Plumbing
- Wood Cutter
- Security service
- Rent a car
- Drivers for private vehicle

4. Service Request

User can request for a particular service. These services include Farming, Security service, Cleaning service, civil contract works.

5. Mailing

This module provides effective communication between admin and user.

6. Part time work

This module provides an opportunity for students, especially for financially weak students for doing part time works such that they can collect money for their educational purposes .